

PROFILE OF SNEHA PANT

Sneha Pant, a Playback Singer, was born in Delhi, India, where she was learning Indian Classical from Guruma Shikha Ganguly. She started her career stint at the raw age of 10 by entering competitions and ensuring winning them. Her break was when Kalyanji Anandji asked her to come to Mumbai and undergo further training by Kalyanji. Once in Mumbai, Kalyanji – Anandji immediately made her a part of their prestigious group- Little Wonders where she was the lead singer in more than 800 shows both in India and overseas.

A key turning point in Sneha's career came in 1995, when she entered the Sa Re Ga Ma childrens' Reality Show. She slammed her way in 1998 as the winner of the Mega Finals of the Childrens' Special of Sa Re Ga Ma.

She further won and also got nominated for many prestigious awards for her contribution to Bollywood as a Playback Singer like MTV Immies, Stardust and many more.
